

Ernest William Henry

October 18, 1939 - October 10, 2008

Ernest William Henry, son of the late James and Dollie Henry, was born on October 18, 1939 and departed this life on October 10, 2008. He was born in Richmond, Virginia and relocated with his family in 1950 to Baltimore, Maryland. He was called Billy by his family and friends. He attended school in Baltimore before enlisting in the U.S. Army, where he served until he was honorably discharged. He was a jack of many trades. He had a love for cars, which gave him many years of employment as a mechanic. He leaves to mourn: his devoted daughter, Mrs. Toni Harrison, who made sure her dad was looked after no matter what; his loving son, Michael Harrison and two grandchildren, Shanell and Michael; son, Billy Jr.; two brothers, Charles Wright and James Henry; sister, Dorothy Newman (sister Nancy Thomas preceded him in death); a host of many nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. But through it all, he loved the Sandtown/Pennsylvania Avenue Area.

“ Hello ! Henry's ! May I send my condolences to you all. Lossing a dear love one after 69 years leaves much pain and hurt. It is great to know that our heavenly father cares and is there with so much comfort in your tribulations in these last days, 2 Tim.3:1-5. We can look to the future with happiness know as the bible say death will be no more, Isa. 25:8. I hope these few words will be uplifting on the journey of life.##imported-begin##lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
