

Ernestine L. Akins-Harp

December 3, 1973 - June 28, 2020

ERNESTINE L. AKINS – HARP, daughter of Richard Akins Sr. and the late Mary Akins, was born on December 3, 1973 in Glen Arm, MD. She departed this life very suddenly on June 28, 2020.

She received her education in Baltimore City Public Schools. Tina as we all knew her by was so full of life. She was the life of the party. If you knew her, you would know she had a good heart. Tina loved her grandkids very dearly. Always telling it like it is. Fashion was her thing. Tina would lose her mind if she didn't have her nails, toes and most important her lashes done. She made lots of friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who really knew her. Now let's not get it messed up, we all can say Tina was crazy, but good crazy. Tina also loved her slow songs, especially SWV, "Understanding" was her favorite. She took care of others when needed. She always left her mark wherever she went.

Her mother, Mary Akins, sister Babara Akins, and son Da'Quan Muse preceded her in death.

She leaves to mourn: her husband, Jerome Harp; father; Richard Akins Sr; her children, Devontae Carter; Jasmine Allen; Malik Wilson; Marquise Wilson; Ty'Quan Wilson; Shaquandra Wilson; Makayla; one brother Richard Akins Jr; two sisters, Chiffon Akins – Hayes; Denise Akins, twelve grandchildren; one uncle; one aunt; nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.
