

Ernestine D. Fulton

September 18, 1956 - May 22, 2015

ERNESTINE DELORES FULTON, (affectionately known as Tinnie), daughter of the late Ella Louise Fulton and George Starks was born on September 18, 1956 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on Friday, May 12, 2015 after a lengthy illness.

Tinnie attended a private school (because of her disability) at a very young age, but for just a couple of years, She may not have had a public school education, but she was well aware of the happenings of the world most importantly she knew the Lord, On Sunday mornings you could hear her trying to sing along with the gospels.

She could be feisty at times, but her smile would light up any room. You could always hear her telling one of the family members, "You better get your life together!"

Tinnie loved to dance, and as long as she had her Pepsi and a bag of chips, she was happy.

In 2013 , Tinnie became a participant of the Johns Hopkins Elder plus program, which she enjoyed immensely attending on Thursday's.

She leaves to cherish her memory: two sisters, Rose Jacobs (Anthony) and

Sheila Starks, brother, Rodney Burns; three in -home nephews, Damon Jacobs (LaShawnda)

Maurice Moore and Sean Gamble; uncle, James Bostick, Jr. and a host of nieces, nephews, and friends.
