

Ernestine Garlick

September 17, 1956 - June 2, 2019

Remembering Ernestine Garlick

Ernestine Garlick, 62, of Henrico, Virginia departed this life, Sunday, June 2, 2019. She was born to the late Helen Pullman and Ernest Garlick in New York City on September 17, 1956. Born and raised on the lower east side of Manhattan, she attended the prestigious Stuyvesant High School. She held a Bachelor of Science degree from Syracuse University and a Master of Science degree in Applied Behavioral Science from John Hopkins University. She was affectionately called “Tina” by her family and friends. Tina accepted Christ at an early age and was a former member of Trinity Baptist Church. Tina formerly lived in Columbia, Maryland and was a member of Sigma Gamma Rho, Incorporated.

Tina was the author of “A Soul Inspired”, that represented her journey through poetry. She had been on a path toward inner peace. Each poem is an aphorism to an open door of her everyday life.

Her other interests included traveling, going on cruises, playing “BidWhist” and “Words with Friends”. She also welcomed spending time with family and friends. She was an outgoing, loving and sociable person.

Her loving spirit was not just an inspiration to family, but to others as well. Tina was kind and thoughtful to all that graced her presence. She had a tremendously big heart and to know her was to truly love her. Tina always wanted to make everyone happy and comfortable. She was someone that always welcomed you with a glorious smile. Tina was an outstanding member in the community that would give her all to others.

She leaves to cherish her memory a devoted son, Michael Wynn; siblings, Celia Garlick Wills (Edward), Deborah Garlick Peterson, General Lee Garlick (Linda) and Aresene Pullman (Barbara), and a host of other relatives and caring friends.
