

Ernestine Green

May 20, 1919 - August 12, 2008

Ernestine Wilson Green, daughter of Oliver and Nancy Davis Wilson was born on May 20, 1919 in Honey Hill, South Carolina. Ernestine, affectionately known as "Muncie", was reared in a Christian home. At an early age she received Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior while attending the Wesley A.M.E. Church in Shulerville, South Carolina. Ernestine was educated in South Carolina's Berkley County Public School System. She moved to Baltimore, Md., in the early 1930's where she became a member of the Faith Baptist Church under the Pastorate of Reverend Simon L. Williams. On July 7, 1934, Ernestine joined in holy matrimony to the "love of her life" William Green, also so known as "Willie" and from this union they were blessed with two children, son William (Butch) and daughter Vera (Poodle). It was important to William and Ernestine that their children be raised in the fear and reverence of God and in 1965 they moved the family's church membership to the Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church under the Reverend Isaac L. Williams and they remained faithful members under the Pastoral Leadership of Bishop Clifford M. Johnson. Ernestine entered Cosmetology School in Baltimore, Md., where she received formal training and became a Licensed Cosmetologist and an entrepreneur, rendering her services to the community for over 65 years. She excelled professionally in her trade and was well known for her ability to "press and curl" the lady's hair, knowing that when they left "Ernestine's Beauty Salon" that they would be looking their very best. Her clientele consisted of family, church and community members. Ernestine's favorite pastimes included eating crabs and she loved sitting on the front where she had many a conversation with her neighbors. The most endearing pastime of all was the special place she held in her heart for her legacy, her "grand and great-grandchildren"; for her last words to her daughter Poodle were to "go home and take care of her grand (Mario, Yates, Priscilla, Kenneth, Tierra, Cierra) and especially her great-grand (Jaylen, Mario, Precious, Dominique and Zoey) children". Ernestine is preceded in death by her parents, her sisters Agnes Margaret and Mamie, Lula and Eloise; her brothers Ausy, Alvin, Rufus and Henry. After 67 years of marriage God called William from labor to reward on March 3, 2005. Ernestine continued to trust the Lord while serving faithfully in the Whosoever Will Club. and On Tuesday, August 12, 2008, God called Ernestine home to join Him and her "beloved". Ernestine leaves to cherish her memory: her loving and devoted children William A. Green and Vera Wilson; a daughter-in-law Julie Green, six grand-children Mario, Robert "Yates", Priscilla, Kenneth, Tierra, Cierra; five great grand-children Jaylen, Mario, Precious, Dominique and Zoey; two god-daughters Leila and Lorraine; one god-son Jerome P.; special cousins Mazie, Leviticus and Mires 'Toby'; a host of devoted nieces, nephews and other relatives; special friends Nancy, Estella, Michelle, Ida, Shirley, Annie B., Joe and Jerome G. along with a multitude of others.

“ I just want to acknowledge the positive influence that both Mrs. Green and her late husband Mr. Green have had n my life. Every time that I came home to 20th and Boone Streets, I knew that I would see the calm assurance of Mrs. Green, as if I were one of her own. She always treated me like she knew me intimately and loved me more. She recognized me as someone, when I was nobody to myself. She demonstrated how a Christian woman shold act. and, ooh, what a beautiful woman. I cry when I think about how calm and truly sparkling she always was to my friends and me. In the midst of confusion, she was organized and steady in her treatment of everyone with whom I saw her interact. What an example!! She supported her man!! She gave out hope and charity like it was free. And she gave without assumption or expectation of any return. All I can say is that Mrs. Green will always stay in my heart and portfolio of how a woman of Christ should be. A Madonna for our neighborhood always. Thank you to the family in your time of bereavement for sharing your Mom with us, our family, with no limits or jealousy. Love you guys Butch and Poodle!! Stay strong and carry on the Lord's work through your anointings. Carpe diem siempre.##imported-begin##George Chainey##imported-end##
