

Ernestine H. Drake

June 10, 1938 - April 13, 2010

ERNESTINE H. DRAKE, daughter of the late Henry and Lucille Hunter, was born on June 10, 1938 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on April 13, 2010 after a lengthy illness. She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System, earning her diploma from Carver High School. On July 12, 1958, she married Daniel Drake. Ernestine was known for her kind and loving personality, loud laughter and her “world famous” sweet potato pies. She retired from Johns Hopkins Hospital in 2000. Ernestine was a member of The Women’s Auxiliary UMBC of Maryland. She loved to cook and shop for shoes. Ernestine also had an unusual hobby, she collected salt and pepper shakers (four to five hundred sets). She had numerous friends and several classmates who are still very close friends. Ernestine was a life long member of Greater Liberty Baptist Church. Before she became ill she was a part of just about every activity the church was involved in. She leaves to mourn: two sons, Daniel Drake Jr. and Maurice I. Drake; two sisters-in-law, Frances Nickelson and Margaret Patterson (both who were more like sisters); daughter-in-law, Jacqrai Drake; two grandchildren, Justin and Gabriella Drake; a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.

“ Please accept my condolences. May the resurrection hope be more real to your family during this time. Jesus loving demonstrated this to us at John 11:38-44 with his friend Lazarus. May you draw comfort in knowing just how much Almighty God, Jehovah loves mankind.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##

“ I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Ernestine H. Drake. Losing a loved one in death is a painful time. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day no longer exist (Revelation 21:3,4). May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father promises us that soon all those in the memorial tombs will come out to life on a paradise earth by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:29). As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S. “ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Sickness and death was never a part of Jehovah God's original purpose because time indefinite was put into our hearts (Eccl.3:11). John5:28-29 and Acts24:15 assures us that all those who have fallen asleep in death will have the opportunity to live again by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). Continue to draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##
