

Ernestine Hodge

January 18, 1931 - May 2, 2008

ERNESTINE HODGE was born in Halifax, Virginia to the late Frank Jones and Frances Jones on January 18, 1930. She received her education through the Baltimore City Public School System. She worked as a teacher for several years. Later in life, she met and married Charles Hodge. Tina, as we called her, enjoyed fishing, traveling and cooking. She made the best 7up cake and sweet potato pie. God called Tina on May 2, 2008 after an accident that occurred. From the heavens God sent His angels to bring her home for sweet rest. She leaves with loving memories: her son, Johnny Bryant; stepdaughter, Charlotte Moore "Genie"; four surviving sisters, Dora Murray, Ida Patterson, Mamie Mints and Elizabeth Alexander; and her brother, Isaac Jones. She also leaves with loving memories five grandchildren, Kateira Bryant, Antonio Bryant, Donald Booth, Lamont Booth and Lisa Moore; a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

“ I wish to send my heartfelt sympathy to the family for your loss. Know this that soon all of this sickness and people dying will be no more, because God has purposed to end such heartache, Isaiah 25,8 tells us that the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will soon swallow up death forever, and will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. After death is swallowed up then God will see that the dead are brought back to life. The dead will hear the voice of Jesus calling them back from the grave, and they will come to life again. John 5:28,29. May your hearts be comforted by his promises, and may your precious memories help you to go on.##imported-begin##R
