

Ernestine R. Conley

March 23, 1935 - May 7, 2002

Ernestine Ruth Young Conley was born on March 24, 1935 in Baltimore, Maryland. The third child of Bessie and William Young, Ernestine and her siblings faithfully attended Pennsylvania Avenue A.M.E. Zion church, for her parents saw to it. The fiercely independent and high-spirited Ernestine made a decision to give her life to the Lord Jesus Christ at twelve years of age. A life long resident of Baltimore, Ernestine attended Douglass High School and what is now known as Morgan State University. In 1960, she became the wife of the late Herbert Conley. Also in the 1960's Ernestine began her career with the Social Security administration. The Lord blessed Ernestine with two children, Carroll Aaron Young and Beth Tinea Conley. In the 1970's, Ernestine suffered an illness that abruptly ended her career with the Social Security Administration. From that point forward, she endured health conditions that most people would have found insurmountable. God's grace and Ernestine's courageous spirit gave her the power to bear it. Perhaps Ernestine's biggest blessing was her unique relationship with her son, Carroll Aaron. They were best friends, as well as mother and son. He encouraged her, he counseled her, he protected and defended her, and most of all he loved her. On May 7, 2002, Ernestine Ruth Young Conley departed this life and entered into everlasting life. Her children, Carroll and Beth; her sisters, Joyce Taylor and Delores Jackson; her brother, Odell Henry; grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces and nephews, survive her.
