

Ernestine Stone

December 13, 1928 - June 15, 2013

ERNESTINE STONE, daughter of the late Eugene Sr. and Hattie Stone, was born on December 13, 1929 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on Saturday, June 15, 2013 after a brief illness.

She was preceded in death by two sisters, Corraine Stone and Doretha Graham.

She received her education in Baltimore City at St. Frances Academy High School. She later left Baltimore and moved to New York, to continue her education at Bronx Community College for her nursing career. She worked at Montefiore Hospital for more than forty years before retiring and moving back home to Baltimore.

Ernestine was well loved and devoted to family. She loved family gatherings and always enjoyed seeing her nieces and nephews. She was a devoted Catholic and had faith in God until the very end.

She leaves to cherish her memory: two sisters, Delores Ellis and Rosalita Stone; one brother, Eugene Stone, Jr. of Baltimore, Maryland; two aunts, Dorothy Scott and Dollie Mae Massie of Fieldale, Virginia; and a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives.

I am home in Heaven dear ones, Oh, so happy and so bright; There is perfect joy and beauty, In this everlasting light. All the pain and grief is over, Every restless tossing passed; I am now at peace forever, Safely home in heaven at last. There is work still waiting for you, So you must not idly stand; Do it now while life remaineth, You shall rest in Jesus' land. When that work is all completed, He will gently call you home; Oh, the rapture of that meeting, Oh, the joy to see you come!

“ Hello to the family of Ernestine Stone. To experience the lost of a loved one can be a truly devastating time period of confusion, anger and sadness. Death is a state of which the person is "conscious of nothing at all" (Ecclesiastes 9:5)--meaning their spirits do not transform to spiritual creatures to haunt the living. A question to be asked is what about heaven and hell? Heaven is reserved for 144,000 anointed ones who will rule with Jesus Christ in Heaven, "And I heard the number of those who were sealed, a hundred and forty-four thousand, sealed out of every tribe of the sons of Israel" (Revelation 7:4). Hell however is a place that does not truly exist. " He that does not love has not come to know God, because God is love" (1 John 4:8) the teachings of a fiery destruction dishonors Jehovah our God because it goes against his loving nature and teachings...he does not wish to see any of his creations destroyed like father would not like to see his son die before his eyes. That is why those who are not apart of the 144,000 heavenly selected group have a earthly hope. The will be a resurrection of the death by Jesus Christ death that gave all sinful humans a hope to live in a paradise earth. (1 Corinthians 1:20). "That there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous" (Acts 24:15). Death will be no more (Revelation 21 :4), lame ones will walk again (Isaiah 35:6), blind ones will see (Isaiah 35:6), the sick will be healed (Isaiah 33:24) and no one will ever starve again (Psalm 72:16). In the meantime however please pray to Jehovah, "the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3) for comfort through this tough time.
