

Ernestine T. Robinson

January 17, 1912 - November 13, 2004

Ernestine Robinson, daughter of the late Janie and Henry Thrower, was born on January 17, 1912 in Ayden, North Carolina. She departed this life on November 13, 2004 after a lengthy illness. She was educated in North Carolina public schools. After graduation, she journeyed to Baltimore, Maryland where she met the love of her life, Andrew Robinson of which produced their only son James. Mr. Andrew Robinson precedes her in death and God blessed her with the second love of her life affectionately called "Mr. Rob" by everyone. The greatest love of her life was when she was blessed as caretaker of her grandson, Larry Keaston. She trained Larry to love and reverence God. Ernestine worked tirelessly at Athol Nursing Home until the time of her retirement. She was a virtuous woman, whose hands were truly blessed as a musician, beautician, cook and homemaker. She joined Faith Tabernacle in 1961 under Pastor R. Hardy, where she received the baptism of the Holy Ghost. Her favorite bible verse was John 3:16, "For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life." She leaves to mourn: her son, James G. Thrower; grandson, Larry Keaton; great-granddaughter, Gabrielle Keaton; sister, Ella Hardy of North Carolina; daughter-in-law, Margaret Thrower; four nieces, Annie Wright of Baltimore, Emma Mae of Baltimore, Gonnie Mae of Virginia, and Rebecca Hardy of North Carolina; nephew, Jesse Garris and his wife, Doreen; grandchildren, Pat, Brenda, Bobby and Barbara of Baltimore; four great-nieces, Althea, Shalonda, Tracy and Bridget of Baltimore; one great-nephew, Stephon of Baltimore; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow. The Bible helps us to appreciate how Jesus feels for us when a loved one dies. John 11:35 tells us that Jesus gave way to tears upon learning of the death of his friend Lazarus. This gives us assurance that Jesus cares for us during the time of our grief. Jesus also comforts us with the hope of a resurrection. (see John 5:28,29)##imported-begin##Mildred##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences on the loss of your dear loved one. The Bible brings much comfort to our heart especially during the dark days of grief. One such comforting passage is Daniel 12:2- "And there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up, these to indefinitely lasting life". May this divinely inspired passage give you much comfort in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##
