

Errol Burnette Williams

June 25, 1938 - February 9, 2003

Errol Burnette Williams, son of Atwell and Mary Williams, was born on June 25, 1938 in Emporia, Virginia. Errol was educated in the public schools and graduated from Jefferson High in Newport News, Virginia. He also attended what is now Hampton University in Hampton, Virginia. In the early sixties he served in the United States Army in Germany and the U.S. Diamond, was known for his love for his family and for all people. He was a faithful member of The New Psalmist Baptist Church since it was located on Cathedral Street. The death of this free spirit was a huge shock to all that knew him. But as a legacy in this city and so many other cities he will never be forgotten. Errol Sr. leaves to cherish his memory three devoted sisters, Charlotte Pratt, Rosa Washington both from Virginia Beach, Virginia and Carrie Logan of Glastonbury, CT., three brothers, John Williams of Glen Burnie, MD., Joseph Williams of Atlanta, Ga. and Atwell Williams, Jr. of Gary, Indiana. He also leaves behind Sandra Williams who mothered his children named Anikka, Ayanna, Arlena, Aretha, Aurelia, Arvia, Aronda and Errol II; Marva Heidmann who mothered Sonia and Mario. These ten children gave him ten beautiful grandchildren named Asha, Averie, Errol III, Alexis, Avonia, Arynne, Darren, Ahmad, Armani and Ashley. Also left to cherish his memory are four sisters-in-law, nieces, nephews, cousins, godchildren and a host of friends including three very special friends named Phyllis Albright, Betty Williams, Ramblin' Rose and Willie Adams

“ Daddy, I will always love you! You were always my inspiration. Your strong spirit placed determination in my soul and became a part of me. I am YOU, and proud of it! I always looked up to you, against all odds. Your opinion always mattered, and you will never be forgotten because I am you and you are me. Thank you, and to GOD be the glory!###imported-begin##Aurelia Williams-Wilburn##imported-end##
