

Ervin Lee Sr.

February 22, 1943 - November 22, 2018

Ervin Lee, Sr. born on February 22, 1943 to the late Milledge and Carrie Lee of Saluda, South Carolina. He was the youngest of five children. God called Ervin home after a lengthy illness on November 22, 2018 at the Alice Manor Nursing Home.

Ervin received his early education from the Saluda County Public School System. He relocated to Baltimore in 1957 where he continued his education and received his high school diploma from Dunbar High School. Ervin was employed by Raleigh Clothing Company; and in his spare time he loved helping to park cars for The Horizon House. He was also employed with Acme Pad Company until he became ill. Ervin married Sarah E. Bullock in 1969, from this union are three children. Ervin made many friends wherever he went. He loved family gatherings and being around friends. Thanksgiving was his favorite holiday because he enjoyed mac & cheese, banana pudding and ham.

Ervin leaves to cherish his memory, his wife Sarah Lee of 49 years; three children; Alvin of Baltimore, Avenette of North Carolina, and Ervin Jr. of Baltimore. Five grandchildren; Evan, Quincy, Qortez, Kevon, Jaden; Two greatgrandchildren Eli and Jayvion; Extended family Shirley, Moe, Cleveland, Joyce and Judy Abney; One special cousin Doris Staples and a host of other relative and friends.

Ervin was preceeded in death by Brothers, Walter Lee and Marion Lee; Sisters, Nettie R. Salley and Jessie B. Rowe; and extended family member, Bettie Abney.
