“ Please accept my deepest sympathies. And may you find comfort in the Holy Scriptures, family and friends. I found comfort in the Bible promise that we will see our love ones again. The death of a loved one can indeed be the most upsetting experience of a lifetime. Recovering from grief may take months, a few years, or even longer. Just remember the acute pain you feel in the beginning will lessen in time and life will gradually seem less bleak and meaningless. There is an empty space where before there was a living human. The Scriptures make it clear that we have no reason to worry about the dead nor to be overwhelmed by sorrow. This is because, in God's due time, dead loved ones will be restored to life. There is so many questions people ask. Why did my love one have to die? Why did God take my love one? Will I see my love one again? What is the condition of the dead? Was humans created by God to die? Where are the dead? The Holy Bible gives the truth to these questions. And truth from the Bible is what gives us hope and comfort to endure.

There are two persons who knows how you feel deep within your heart, even when you speak no words. God know how you feel. (Psalms 51:17) Can you imagine how God felt when he saw his first born son die on the torture stake? God knows you need comfort and the scriptures gives us that comfort, especially when we are alone. One thing that can help you cope with your grief is to draw close to God and the resurrection hope. May Jehovah God give the family comfort and peace.

I like to thank everyone for coming out to Lamar and Courtney moving on up to middle school party. I had a very enjoyable time I hope you did too. As some of you might know condolence I would like to send my condolence to the family and friends of Baby Esperanza Sanchez Prudencia. It is always brings tears to my eyes when I hear that a precious baby or child has died. Please take comfort in knowing that our heavenly father knows the pain you are feeling. That is why he made us a promise, that one day very soon, he will put an end to death. This promise comes from his Holy Bible, at Isaiah 25:8, "He will swallow up death forever, And the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces." And at 1Corinthian 15:26

It says, "And the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing." We know this to be true, because at Numbers 23:19 it says, "God is not a mere man who tells lies." So if Jehovah God says, he is going to wipe away the tears from all our faces; and tears of sorrow will vanish; no one will die from natural causes or sickness. Rest assured that this will happen, because "it is impossible for God to Lie." I hope you find comfort in his promise. Our heavenly father is always there for you. At 2 Corinthian 1:2,3 it tells us he is a God of all comfort." I hope you allow him to comfort you at this time.

To lose a child is so tragic. The heartache your family is feeling can only be imaged by us. However, our heavenly father, creator of life, knows your pain. And he will do something about it. May you find comfort from the scriptures at Ps. 147:3 and Rev. 21:4. These are things he has promised he will do for you. Remember that hope.
