

Essie Mae Gibbs

November 11, 1947 - September 22, 2010

ESSIE MAE GIBBS, daughter of the late Williams G. and Earline Jackson, was born on November 11, 1947 in South Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on September 22, 2010 after a lengthy illness.

She received her education at Edmondson High School in Baltimore. At the Age of eighteen she became employed at Blue Cross and Blue Shield. She worked there for two and a half to three years. In 1968 she became employed at the Social Security Administration, Where she remained for thirty-five years until she became ill. She also attended Jules Beauty School where she obtained her cosmetology and managerial license.

She attended Shiloh C.C. Church where she sang on the Sanctuary Choir and enjoyed going to Bible Study. She married Michael Gibbs in 1967 and from this union two children were born, Little Michael and Melaine

Essie was known to be sweet, kind and very devoted to her family. She made friends wherever she went and if you ask those that knew her what they will remember the most, it would be her smile.

She leaves to mourn: her husband, Michael C. Gibbs; son, Michael A. Gibbs of Baltimore, Maryland; daughter and son-in-law, Melanie and Damon Lyde of fort Bragg, North Carolina; four granddaughters, Akyrah Harris, Nigeria Gibbs,

Diamond Lyde and Anayah Lyde; four sisters, Ann Braga of San Francisco, California, Elizabeth Crosby, Sallie Williams and Estelle Cromwell, all of Baltimore, Maryland; three brothers, Daniel Brunson of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Willis Jackson of Clemmons, North Carolina and Lee Ernest Jackson of Baltimore, Maryland; three aunts, Rovina Brunson of Manning, South Carolina, Alice Nesmith of Baltimore, Maryland and Bertha Crews of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
