“ Dear family, I'm so sorry that you lost your dear Essie. I know the pain is great, but keep leaning on our heavenly father who comforts us during all our tribulations. When we lose a loved one we wonder, where are they, will I ever really see them again, and how long will it be before I'm reunited with my loved one again? Those are all good questions, and the bible lets us know that even the faithful man Job had such questions. At Job 14:14 he asked, "If an able-bodied man dies, can he live again? IN verse 15 God revealed the answer to him. Job said: "You will call, and I myself shall answer you. "For the work of your hands you will have a yearning." So Job came to know that Jehovah yearns to see his faithful servants alive again, and he has made this provision of everlasting life through the ransom paid by his beloved son Jesus. Jesus said at John 11:25, "I am the ressurection and the life. "He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." May the wonderful hope of the ressurection be a source of comfort and strength to help you to endure at this time.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. 1 Corinthians 15:26 reveals that our enemy death will be destroyed. Also, Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "there is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength every time you think about this wonderful hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To The Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. We look forward to a time when Jehovah God will wipe out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore (Rev21:4). Continue to draw close to the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you (Psalm55:22). Warm regards, C. Murphy##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##
