“ *I would like to express my condolences to the family of Mrs. Essie Mae Bunn in this time. Death is a true enemy of mankind and bring great sorrow and pain. Please know that this enemy will not be apart of our lives forever the bible promises that death will be swallow up forever this is a promise from Jehovah God. (Isaiah 25:8) We do miss them also at 1Corinthain 15:26, tells that death will be brought to nothing. Jesus also makes a promise about those who fall asleep in death at John 5:28,29 were they will hear his voice and come out to a resurrection of life. Please know that your family will be in my prays. “ My sincere condolences to Mrs. Mary Jones and Family. I was very sadden to hear that Ms. Bunn had deceased. In difficult times such as this the scriptures has brought me and many others comfort. I'm sure you will find this to be true. When reading Daniel 12:2 Almighty God promises to "wake up" our dear loved ones so that we can have the hope of seeing them again. Yes, a resurrection. May you too gain strength from these comforting words.##imported-begin##V Adams##imported-end##

“ To the family of Ms. Essie, I offer my sincere sympathy. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. I remember spending time with Ms. Essie in the past and enjoyed her personality. During times such as these I have always found comfort in the the resurrection hope expressed at Acts 24:15. The Bible holds many comforting promises made by the God who cannot lie. Such scriptures as Isaiah 66:13 and 2 Corinthians 1:3,4. May you also find comfort from God's promises in the Bible.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ So sorry to hear of the death of your loved one. Sadly sickness takes the lives of so many. Yet, it was never God's purpose for people to get sick and die; and he purposes to rid the world of sickness and death in the very near future. At Isaiah 25:8 the bible says the time is coming when no resident will say, "I am sick." Also Isaiah 25:8 says, And he will swallow up death forever, and the Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from off all faces." In that day we will be able to see our loved ones who died again in a peaceful new world. I hope you find comfort in the promises from God's word to sustain you'##imported-begin##R Johnsonr##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##
