

Essie Mae Moore

March 20, 1914 - March 5, 2008

God saw that you were burdened, the hills were hard to climb, so He closed your weary eyelids and whispered, "Peace Be Thine". Essie Mae Strickland Moore departed this life March 5, 2008 to be one of God's angels. She was born March 20, 1914 in Randolph County, North Carolina to the late William Sherman and Martha Ann Williams Strickland. She was preceded in death by her husband Calvin Moore and her siblings, four sisters and four brothers. As a child, she joined and was baptized at Fletchers Chapel Methodist Episcopal Church. She married and moved to Englewood, New Jersey. Essie was a housewife that took care of her home and husband like no other could. She then moved to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania where she joined a Methodist Church also sang in their choir. She then moved back to Greensboro, North Carolina in 1990 and joined St. Mathews Methodist Church where she served with the Women Ministry. Later joining Simpson Gillespie United Methodist Church in Charlotte, North Carolina. Her Christian journey in Richmond was spent at Wesley Memorial United Methodist Church under the leadership of Rev. Rodney Hunter. She had a tremendous sense of humor, and enjoyed the fellowship with her nieces and nephews. Essie was a warm, caring and special person that loved her family. Essie leaves to cherish her memory 22 devoted nieces and 13 nephews; sister-in-law, Maxine Strickland and devoted friend, Bessie Owens.

“ May I send my condolences in your recent circle of life being broken. Ms.Essie lived for 94 years , wonderfull, as the bible say at Ps.90:10, "Some person will live to be 70 years and others because of speical mightiness 80 years". Imagine the happiness to be our when the dead are resurrected back to life on a paradise earth, great indeed. I am looking forward to that happening as the bible say. All of us have lost some one at one time or another and knows the feeling of lossing a dear love one and share your feeling. I hope these word will be uplifting in some way. May all the many precious and cherished memories and accomplishments of Ms. Essie keep supporting you all in the journey of life.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##
