“ We are deeply sorry for your loss. Family members are very precious and we suffer when they are no longer with us. God's word the Bible provides comfort at Psa. 34:18 when God says he is close to the brokenhearted and those crushed in spirit. May knowing this and God's promise at Rev 21:3,4 that death and mourning will pass away ,along with the love you share with each other, sustain and comfort the family now and in the future.

“ Aunt Estell is what we called her. She was a little bitty woman who always smiled and loved to dance. She was one of my favorite aunties.

How good to know that one day we will have the chance to see our dead loved ones again! John5:28-29 He deeply cares for us all and wants to reunite families with their loved ones. What a loving,compassionate, and kind heavenly father Jehovah is. Once again I am truly sorry for your loss.
