“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I would like to offer my condolences to your family on the recent death of your loved one, Mrs. Davis. I know she was a lovely person, and will be sorely missed. At times like these we have the love of our heavenly father to comfort us, and his holy word, the bible, to bring us hope. In his word he promises us at Isaiah 25:8, that he will swallow up death forever, and that he will wipe the tears from off all faces. So oneday instead of saddness, we will rejoice because our loved ones will come back to life. I hope that the bible will bring you comfort just as it has brought my family comfort in times of trials. Take care.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##
