

Estelle C. Harrison

November 11, 1931 - February 9, 2005

Estell C. Harrison, daughter of the late Thomas H. Watkins and Addie C. Harris, was born on November 11, 1931 in Clarkesville, Va. She departed this life on February 9, 2005 after a lengthy illness. Estell was educated in the Virginia Public School System. The family migrated to Baltimore, Maryland in the early 1940's where Estell continued her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. The family later migrated to Boston, Massachusetts in 1955. Estell was employed at Morse Shoe Factory. She was a valued employee there for a number of years. In 1975, she moved back to Baltimore, where she married Leroy G. Harrison, Sr. Estell was a very compassionate woman. She had a big heart with so much room to love so many. She was known as "Mom" to so many and "Grandmom" to even more. She was the kind of woman that would help anyone that she could and would pray to God for more resources to help more when she had run out of what He had already blessed her with. She became the baby sitter for her children and for the neighbors and the neighbors children. Sometimes it seemed like, as soon as someone found out they were pregnant, straight to "Mom" they would go, and ask, "You are going to watch the baby, aren't you?" And with that heavenly trademark of hers, her smile, she would always say, "Just bring him or her here." Estell had a blended family. She leaves to mourn: her husband of twenty-nine years, Leroy G. Harrison, Sr.; one sister, Delores Asamoah; one brother, Thomas H. Watkins; two biological children, Linwood Giles, Sr. of Fairburn, Ga. and Lynn L. James of Baltimore, Md.; eight children, Leroy

Harrison, Jr., Joyce Watkins, Deborah Wilson, Steve Harrison, Nathaniel Harrison, Sedora Chisolm and Theresa Simmons; one daughter-in-law, Diane Giles; four sons-in-law, Fred Watkins, Sr., Thomas Wilson, Jr., Severn Chisolm and Michael Simmons; one sister-in-law, Juanita Watkins; one brother-in-law, John William; three biological grandchildren, Linwood Giles, Jr. and Yvette Nicole Giles of Boston, Mass. and DeShaylynn Shanazz James; nineteen grandchildren, AndrŽ James, Anthony Harrison, Antonio Harrison, Bruce Fisher, Crissy Harrison, Crystyl Harrison, Danielle Simmons, Darnell Watkins, Michelle Simmons, Nicole Wilson, Octeavious Chisolm, Roderick Harrison, Sinclair Harrison, Stacey Harrison, Stephanie Harrison, Steve Harrison, Jr., Thomas Wilson, III and Tyrell Watkins; one goddaughter, Alice White; seventeen great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews and host of other relatives and friends.

“ To the family, I want to express my sincere condolences on the passing of your loved one. Losing a person in death is unnatural because Jehovah God did not make us to die. He promises to give us comfort in our time of need because at 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 it states that he is the God of all comfort. Another way he comforts us is by the hope laid out in the scriptures. Please read John 5:28,29; Revelation 21:3,4; Psalm 37:10,11. Again, please accept my condolences.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
