“ Please accept my sincere condolences on the loss of your loved one. Though death plagues us all, we can find comfort from the scriptures. John 5:28,29 tells us that all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out. When this occurs the earth will be a beautiful paradise to welcome back our dear ones. May you be comforted by such a wonderful hope that only Jehovah God, and his son, Jesus Christ will fulfill.##imported-begin##L. Coleman##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. The Bible tells us that death is our enemy and one day there will be no more death.{1 Corinthians 15:26}There is the promise of our dead loved returning to us. Daniel 12:2- "And there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up, these to indefinitely lasting life." May these loving promises give you comfort and strength in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ I offer my deepest sympathy to your family on the recent death of your loved one. I'm sure she's missed very much. A long time ago Jesus ressurected Lazures back to life much to the joy of his sisters. By doing this he demonstrated how he will ressurect all of our dead loved ones when his kingdom begins it's reign over our earth. Bible prophecy indicates that this will occur in the very near future. John 5:28,29 shows that we can see our loved ones again. I hope the bible comforts you as it has me and my family.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
