

Ester B. Glay

December 3, 1927 - February 14, 2005

On Monday, February 14, 2005 at 4:25 a.m. God in his tender mercy and loving-kindness looked down on his child and saw that her burden was too heavy to bear. He sent a special angel to bring Esther to her eternal home. Esther was the only daughter of the late Herbert and Lois Glay of Richmond, Virginia. She was educated in the Richmond Public School System and chose a career in nursing, which brought her to Baltimore, Maryland in 1953. She later retired from State Service at the Rosewood State Hospital facility in 1988. She was blessed with the birth of one son, Ronnie Kenneth Glay. Her love for the Lord led her to various churches in Maryland before settling at Evangelical Baptist Church. She remained faithful until her health declined. She was a warm and loving person, always putting others before herself. She encouraged everyone to look beyond their own trials and tribulations and know that there was calm after every storm. Her love for her family and friends was unconditional and inspiring. Her lengthy illness led her to reside at "New Life Assisted Living" in Elkridge, Maryland where she enjoyed the companionship of special friends, Puku Geedeh and Marjorie Thomas. She leaves to cherish her memory: son, Ronnie K. Glay, daughter-in-law, Debra S. Glay; two granddaughters, Sheronne N. Glay and Ariel M. Glay; one great-granddaughter, Alayah N. Glay-Rucker, who she lovingly called "Pooh", Terran Rucker; one uncle, Lucious Cunningham of Richmond, Virginia; first cousins, Eleanor Farrington, Sonciere Enneddame and Coy Raleigh of Richmond Virginia; devoted friends, Ruby Bullock, Ida Dorin,

Janice Jones, Elvin Edmonds and host of other relatives and friends.

“ Hello Family & Friends of Ms. Glay, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 11:25,26 where Jesus says "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; and everyone that is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all." It is my hope that this scripture comforts you.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends, please accept my sincere condolences during this time of your loss. Please read and find comfort in John 5:28,29 and Rev. 21:3,4. God has promised to do away with death and the pain that it causes. May these scriptures bring you strength and encouragement during your time of sorrow.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##
