

Esther Catherine Chainey

June 17, 1918 - October 16, 2012

Esther C. Chainey, daughter of the late Peter and Bertha Spicer, was born on June 17, 1918 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on October 16, 2012 after a lengthy illness.

She attended Douglass High School in Baltimore and went on to work at Read's Drug Store, then Marlboro Shirt Company for a short period of time. Esther was an active member of the once Neighborhood Club Association. Later in life she became a member of Whitestone Baptist Church.

She married the late Vernon W. Chainey and out of the union three children were born, Earl David Chainey, Vernae Esther Quarles, and Carlita Valerie Mines. Because of her love, God gave her three more children, Wanda Elizabeth Taylor, Debbie Taylor, and Althea Brown.

Esther was a woman with a huge heart, always giving whether monetary, gifts or time. She was a distinguish dresser and she shared that experience with all her children and grands. She loved shopping whether it was in the grocery store or her favorite Hecht Company where she was given royal treatment by their employees who had the pleasure to get to know her.

Her home was a haven to family, friends, and strangers. Everyone who visited received a warm smile and a full stomach. Although feisty, generosity defined her character. She was always there for any and every one whether a listening ear, standing by that person or lending a helping hand. Her smile, her laughter even her long telephone conversations will indeed be missed.

Esther leaves to mourn, five daughters; Vernae Quarles, Carlita Mines, Wanda Taylor, Debbie Taylor, and Althea Brown; one son-in-law; Wilbert Quarles, Sr.; thirteen grandchildren; Dontalian Madison, Tyra Chrisman, William Chrisman, Warren Ellis, Jr., Toya Ellis, Tiffany Anthony, Raheem Brown, Toney Taylor, Sr., Terrashawn (Raye) Taylor, La Conya Taylor, Ashley Taylor, Bianca Brown, and Arnold Brown; ten great grand; one great great granddaughter; one sister-in-law; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and one close and dearest friend, Shirley Peterson.

“ I am so sorry for your lost. Losing a loved one is never easy. Jehovah God promises to do away with our suffering. In the bible at Revelation 21:4, it says "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." How comforting it is to know what Jehovah will do for us all. I hope this helps in your time of need.

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
