

Esther J. Hope

February 25, 1927 - November 2, 2001

Esther Jane Bagwell was born March 25, 1927 in Nancock, Virginia, the daughter of the William & Annie Bagwell. On November 2, 2001 our creator of life sent an angel to bring Esther home to rest in the bosom of Jesus. Esther was educated in Baltimore School System, she briefly worked in the Food Industry where she worked for Thompson's Restaurant, later she worked for Belmar Bakery as a Baker which she retired in 1989. In 1943 she was married to the late August Hope, she was baptized and became a member of New St. John Baptist Church. The most favorite things she liked to do were to watch westerns and listen to music. Esther leaves to cherish her precious memories of her life, her children, Esther Hope, James Hope, Raymond Hope, and Russell Hope; her grandchildren, Tonya Hope, Regena Hope, Robert Hope, Jr., Demetra Hope and Taniqua Hope, a daughter-in-law, Linda Hope and a devoted friend, Corye Barrow along with a host of relatives and friends.
