

Esther Kidd

February 15, 1936 - November 16, 2018

Esther Smith Kidd was born on February 15, 1936 in Baltimore, Maryland to Mary Goldberg Smith and Alfred “Butch” Smith, Sr. Esther was the youngest daughter of four children, of which, the youngest brother, Arnold Smith preceded her in death in 1971.

Esther was a true entrepreneurial-business woman and highly gifted woman of strength to venture and try new things that women of her time may have been frowned upon. Her artistic talents continue to flow through her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren that includes having skill sets for starting their own businesses, sales and making statutes. For over 25 years, she was an avid stamp collector. She was a loyal Ravens & Orioles fan. Esther's favorite song that she lived by was I Did It My Way by Frank Sinatra and The Way We Were by Barbara Streisand.

Esther reigned as a “Queen” with her presence among those around her from celebrities, politicians and to all she had met. She wore her hair as her crown of glory. Although she had many adversities in her life, she rose above them and pursued to live life to the fullest. Raised as a Catholic, her belief in God was what got her through her storms. Her personality was infectious and a smile that would radiate into a belly laugh for all to laugh with her.

Esther leaves behind a host of loved ones; siblings, Alfred “Smitty” (Doris Smith) and Phyllis (John Brewington); daughters – Janice, who preceded her in death, Christine, Karen (Gerald Clavon) and Sheila (Terry Bush); sons – Joseph Jr. (Dee), Dwight and Curtis; along with granddaughters whom she adored Glenda, June, Sharonda and Tene' & Tenika, who preceded her in death; grandsons Terrance "T.J.", Nathan and Nolan; numerous other granddaughters, grandsons, great-grandchildren; nieces, nephews, great-nieces and great-nephews, cousins and a host of other friends.

A special mention of the loving relationship with cousin Rosemary, as well as her niece, Carolyn.
