December 28, 1922 - April 28, 2003

Esther M. Waddy, daughter of the late Marion and Blanche Tolliver, was born on December 28, 1922 in Baltimore Md. She departed this life on April 28, 2003. She received her education at Dunbar High School in Baltimore; she later went to Cortez Peters Business School. Upon completion of her education she worked for the City of Baltimore Housing Department for thirty-five years and retired. Esther M. Waddy married the late Thomas E. Waddy. Esther had many friends wherever she went. Everyone who knew her will sincerely miss her. She was a part of the flower circle, comfort choir senior group, and sick committee of the church. She leaves to cherish her memories: her sister, Mary Colbert; three brothers, William Tolliver, Marion Tolliver and Paul Tolliver; brother-in-law, Robert Colbert Sr.; sister-in-law, Eula; goddaughter, Wanda Watts; a host of nieces and nephews; and three very close friends, Louise Redd, Madlin Matthews and Dorothy Davis. Since you are gone, our dear loved one, A voice we loved to hear; A place is vacant in our home, Which never can be filled; But we are trying to be submissive, For we know God knows best; And we're sure that you are with the Lord, Resting in peace.
