December 23, 1926 - June 8, 2003

Ester Naomi Willis was born in Baltimore, Maryland on December 23, 1926 to the late Ruth and Howard Mason. Ester departed her life to be with the Lord on Sunday, June 8, 2003 at University Specialty Hospital after a long illness. At an early age she attended Shiloh Christian Community Church. She later joined Brown Memorial. She graduated from Frederick Douglas High School. She was employed by S.A. Levine Company as a mail clerk for 20 years. She was later employed by the Baltimore City school system where she retired. On August 6, 1955 she married William Willis; from this union there was an adopted daughter, Ruth Scott, who felt that her mother was her best friend whom she will never forget. Ester would help others and give anyone a meal or shelter. She was a very loving and kind person. Children loved her and she loved them. She loved to cook. Thanksgiving and Christmas was always a joyous time for the entire family. She will be humbly missed. She leaves to cherish her memory: Daughter Ruth Scott, Grandson Tai Scott, and Great-grandson Christopher Scott; two sisters-in-law, Anna Pearl Scott and Shiela Mason; devoted nieces Pamela Williams, Muriel and Sandra Bradford; many cousins, nieces, nephews, and a devoted companion Edward Smith and a host of friends.
