

Esther Pauline Moore

October 22, 1919 - July 26, 2008

Esther Pauline Moore, beloved daughter of the late Edith Scesco Bolden & Solomon Bolden was born on October 22, 1919 in Maryland. Her earthly journey came to an end on July 26, 2008. She graduated from high school in Baltimore City. Later on, she attended the Mergenthaler Adult Evening Center, and the former Community College of Baltimore (Baltimore City Community College) to study Nutrition. In 1981, after 20 years of service, she retired from the Baltimore City Public School system as a Dietician. She was a highly regarded manager and was loved by faculty, staff and students. Esther lived life to the fullest; she loved food, fun and fellowship. She enjoyed local food and collected a number of recipes. She loved to travel and was a member of the Golden Age travel club. Most importantly, she loved the Lord, and was a lifelong member of the Ames Memorial United Methodist Church. She was married to the late Sherman Moore on August 16, 1940 and from this union they had one son, Gary Moore, who preceded her in death. She leaves to mourn her daughter in-law, Brenda Moore; one grandson, Brandon Moore and his wife, Gabriella; one granddaughter, Karen and her husband, Jock; one great-granddaughter, Kalia; and many cousins and devoted friends.
