

Esther Pollard

November 29, 1906 - May 7, 2002

Esther Mae Pollard, affectionately known as Grandma, was born to the late Mr. & Mrs. A. Henry in Spartansburg, South Carolina, on November 29, 1906. The first of seven, Grandma's family eventually left Spartansburg to migrate north. Acquiring her education along the way Esther found herself in New York where she met and married the late Leonard W. Bascome. From this union came the loving daughter Lillian E. Sadly this union was not to last. Grandma was destined to meet and marry the late Reverend James Oliver Pollard. From mother to Grandma to Greatgrandma to Great Greatgrandma, Esther Mae Pollard has blossomed like the Rose of Sharon. "Those that be planted in the house of the Lord shall flourish in the courts of our God". She leaves to mourn: her daughter, Lillian Brooks, son-in-law, Albert Brooks, granddaughters, Barbara Cannady, Gail Allender, Priscilla Briggs, Laura Handy; grandson, William Cannady, David Johnson, Anthony Johnson and a host of great grand, great great grands, nieces, nephews, in-laws and friends. To Esther's extended family at Pleasant Grove Baptist Church, The Basilica, Chelsea Manor, Manor Care and Forest Haven Nursing Home, we say thank you. Thank you for the days when we could not be there. Thank you for the comfort and spiritual support you gave when we could not.
