

Esther Simon

January 16, 1948 - February 2, 2014

OBITUARY

ESTHER SIMON, the daughter of the late Joseph Belton Simon and Annie Ruth Simon was born on January 16, 1948. She departed on February 2, 2014 when her Heavenly Father called her home.

Esther received her diploma from Francis Embro High and attended Essex Community College, majoring in Business Management.

She was employed by Saint Joseph Hospital for several years, then working at Hawkins Christian Care as a Nurses Assistant, over 30 years in the Health Field.

Esther was a very loving and caring, coming from a strong religious foundation. To know her was to understand wisdom. A few of Esther's hobbies included dancing and singing.

Esther was blessed with two children, a son, Darrin Simon Bey and Daughter, Annette Simon, by Hamlet Scovens.

Esther touched numerous people where ever she went and will be sincerely missed, from this place we call earth. She was truly devoted and loved .

She was preceded in death by one brother, Charlie Simon.

Esther leaves to mourn: One son, Darrin Simon Bey; one daughter, Annetta Simon; four sisters, Diane Shelton, Beatrice Hawkins, Patricia A. Wright and Julia Lawson; two brothers, Loundro Simon and Joseph P. Ivory, Shantrese Ivory and Isaiah P. Ivory Simon; two great grandchildren, Patrice Winter Boswell and Romance Nevaeh Ferguson; and a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.

“ WOW I am just finding out a year later. My deepest sympathy and wishes of comfort. I was on bed rest pregnant with my son last year but I would have definitely been there for the funeral Darrin. I know how close you were to your mother. My heart just jumped out my chest when I found out. Sincerely Crystal Sweeney Dixon
