

Esther N. White

May 31, 1922 - January 31, 2013

ESTHER NAOMI WHITE, daughter of the late John and Hattie Temple Harris, was born on May 31, 1922. She departed this life on January 31, 2013 after a lengthy illness.

She was born in Long Beach, New Jersey and graduated from high school in Jersey City. In 1947, she married James Nathaniel White. They had one child, Judy.

Esther worked at the Corp of Engineers; and then later at the Social Security Administration in Woodlawn, Maryland. She retired in 1986.

In her retirement, along with her husband James, she participated in activities at the Forest Park Senior Center, where she also volunteered annually as a tax preparer until her health began to fail.

Esther's greatest pleasure was taking care of her family. She also enjoyed doing crossword puzzles; and in her younger years, sewing. She also enjoyed traveling: a highlight of her life was a 1955 trip to Disneyland at a time when few Easterners went and plane trips were rare.

In her later years, she became an enthusiastic Orioles fan and loved watching them on television. She also loved watching PGA golf and particularly liked rooting for Tiger Woods.

Esther will be remembered as a wonderful person who was deeply devoted to her husband, as he was to her. She contributed greatly to the success of her family and did what she could to ensure the happiness of her friends.

She is survived by: her husband of nearly sixty-six years, James Nathaniel; her child, "Jules"; her brother-in-law and sister-in-law, Tsgt (Ret) Lionel and Mrs. Leavy Ann White; her sister-in-law, Lydia Threatt; and numerous nieces and nephews; grandnieces and grandnephews; great-grandnieces and great-grandnephews; and one great-great-grandniece and one great-great-grandnephew.

“ My condolences go out to the family. This must be a difficult time for the family, losing someone that you loved. May you gain strength by the promise of Jesus Christ to restore our dead loved ones back to life with us on earth as stated at Matthew 5:5 and John 5:28, 29.

Annitta Verrett - February 09, 2013 at 07:55 PM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
