

Esther Inez Williams

May 1, 1967 - June 23, 2012

One thing have I desired of the Lord,that will I seek after;that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life,to behold the beauty of the Lord and to inquire in His temple(Psalms 27:4)

Esther Inez Williams heard the voice of the Master and peacefully left her earthly tabernacle in the afternoon Saturday,June 23,2012. Se was the third daughter born to Elder Walter Williams and Missionary Margaret Hill Wilson,May 1,1967. She was a loving and devoted mother.

Esther was educated in the Richmond Public School and was a graduated of John Marshall High School.

She received Christ at an early age and rededicated her life to Christ in her later years.

Esther endured sickness like a soldier,always mindful that her final word was God. She was surrounded by her family and those she loved. She leaves many cherished memories. We will miss her but we rest in the promise of the Lord Jesus Christ that if we live for Him,we shall reign with Him.

She is survived by her two daughters,Shaundaia Jones and Brittany

Williams;two sons,Brandon Marrow and Brindon Williams;four grandchildren;parents,Margaret Wilson and Walter E. Williams(Earlene);three sisters,Tabitha Stevenson (Garnell),Margaret Tharrington(Tracy) and Jacqueline Richardson(Pursell);three brothers,Walter Jr. (Kim),Rongilia(Veronica) and Keith Williams;devoted friend, Anthony Robinson;and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I attended Henderson Middle School with Esther and she was always a very nice and wonderful classmate. My Husband also attended Elementary School with her. (Kent Ford) I have seen her few times in passing over the years and she still exhibited the same sweet and humble personality. I remember her younger brother Ron... and Im wishing him and the rest of thier family peace in the midst of this storm of grief. May you all find comfort in the wonderful memories you have.

“ Family may you find tranquility in your fondest memories and rely on "the God of all comfort" (2 Cor 1:3,4) to see you through. Remember the promise at Acts 24:15, thinking about that Bible-based hope can be the greatest comfort while greiving a loss of a loved one.

“ To the Family:

I am praying that your faith will help you through this very difficult time and help you to know that God's purpose, whatever it may be, is at work. I pray that you will find the strength to get you through your grief and sadness.

Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, love leaves a memory no one can steal.

With deepest sympathy,

“ I was shocked and saddened by the passing of Esther. You have my deepest sympathy at this very sad time. It is times like this that put our faith to the test. I feel that is why we have to use our faith to see us through the grief and despair that comes with tragedy. The Bible says "Blessed are they that mourn, for they shall be comforted." I pray that God will bless you and give you the strength to get through this very difficult time. My thoughts and prayers will be with you.

“ To Ms. Margaret, Reannie, Bunny, Jackie, Walter, Keith & Ron. Lisa and I are deeply sadden by the passing of Esther. We share so many fond memories of Esther growing up together. Just know that Esther will be greatly missed, forever cherished and always remembered. If there is anything we can do for you, please do not hesitate to call upon us. 1 “Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God; trust also in me. 2 In my Father’s house are many rooms; if it were not so, I would have told you. I am going there to prepare a place for you. 3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am. - John 14:1-3
