

Ethel Mae Blake

February 10, 1936 - June 26, 2010

Our beloved mother, ETHEL MAE (COOKIE) BLAKE, was born on February 10, 1936 in Pocomoke City, Maryland to Mary Williams and James Randolph Finney, Sr..

She later moved to Baltimore City, where she was educated at Frederick Douglas High School. She was multi-talented and excelled in art, upholstery and a seamstress.

Whatever she went in Baltimore, she was known for her gentleness, fairness and neighborly qualities we all look for in people we come in contact with.

She is survived by: three sons, Kenny, Terry and Charles; two daughters, Vanessa and Donna; daughter-in-law, Anna Watts; and son-in-law, James Darby. Her extended family swelters with a host of grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

She will be missed by all who allowed her to nurture and help them grow.

“ I wish to express my sincere condolences to the family of Ms. Blake. In this difficult time love and support are what family and friends need to cope. May you find comfort in God's inspired word the bible. One such comforting message is found at Rev 21:4 "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."
