

Ethel Jeanette Brown-Lomax

October 5, 1934 - June 7, 2011

ETHEL JEANETTE BROWN, was born on October 5, 1934 to Thelma Coates and Freddie Brown in Washington, DC. She married Vincent Nathaniel Lomax in August, 1953. Ethel departed this life on June 7, 2011.

Ethel received her education in Washington, DC Public School Schools and held an active and prosperous life. She was a member of the Eastern Star, volunteered as a classroom aide in Westport Elementary School in Baltimore, MD and volunteered as a worker at the voting polls. Ethel was a representative for Union Local 1199E, worked in the laundry department of Sinai Hospital and as the Supervisor of Environmental Service at the Towson location of the Manor Care Nursing Home.

Ethel accepted Christ as a young child in Washington, DC when she was baptized in the Methodist faith. She continued to enjoy her faith and Christianity through her entire life. In May, 2009, Ethel joined the Community Christian Church in White Marsh, Maryland and continued as a member until her passing.

Ethel leaves to mourn: two daughters, Sharon Williams and Sheila Jackson; three grandchildren, Rhonda (fiancé Henry), Erica and Stacey (Husband Richard); four great-grandchildren, Darryl, Brittney, Madison and Sabrina; and her dear friend, Minnie Sterling.
