

Ethel Briggs Champhor

September 4, 1909 - September 10, 2010

ETHEL L. CHAMPHOR, also known as Aunt Cootie by her family, friends and neighbors, was the daughter of the late Alexander and Flossie Briggs. She was born on August 4, 1909. She departed this life on September 10, 2010.

Aunt Cootie was the oldest of all her siblings: Clarence, Flossie, Margaret, Zelda, Nannie and Rose(all preceded her in death, except sister Rose Burton). She was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. She grew up in a Christian home where she accepted Christ at an early age. She was married to the late Wilbur Camphor. Although she no children, Aunt Cootie, was a devoted “mother figure” to her family. She cared for several members of her family over the years, but loved her some Antoinette.

Mr. Ethel, the staff called her, was a patient at the Liberty Heights and Rehabilitation Center for almost thirty years. She is remembered for her constant spunk and fire. The family celebrated her one hundredth birthday at the Nursing Home where a lot of family members, patients an staff attended. Last month Aunt Cootie was blessed to celebrated her one hundred first birthday. She life a full life and at the oldest member of our family, she will be sorely missed.

She leaves to mourn : sister, Rose Burton(ninety-two) a devoted niece, Linda Lomax, who visited her almost every Sunday until her death; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my sympathy for your loss. Despite this difficult time, you can find comfort in the Christian hope of the resurrection. Jesus promises at John 5:28, 29: "Do not marvel at this but the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs hears my voice and come out..." Yes, we have a precious hope of seeing our loved ones again!
