

Ethel Wingo Goode

October 18, 1929 - August 19, 2011

Ethel Wingo Goode, departed this life on August 19, 2011. She was born on October 18, 1929 in Spartanburg, South Carolina. Mrs. Ethel Goode was the fifth child of the late Granville and Queenella Rogers Wingo. She was preceded in death by her husband Bernard P. Goode, Sr.; granddaughter, Stacy R. Footman ; brother, Alexander R. Wingo , and twin sister, Evelyn V. Wingo.

Ethel attended Spartanburg public school where she graduated in 1947. She was accepted into Howard University School of Nursing. Her plans to attend changed when her mother passed. Ethel then moved to New York to be with her oldest sister, and from there they relocated to Richmond, Virginia. Later in life, she continued her education and graduated from the LCNA program at Rutledge College in Richmond, Virginia. Upon completion of this program , Ethel began private duty nursing care in which she cared for the elderly.

Ethel was a member of Morning Star Baptist Church , under the leadership of the late Reverend Dr. Duncan C. Chavis . She loved her church and served on the Deaconess Board.

Our beloved is survived by two sons, Reverend Dr. Bernard P. Goode, Jr. (Carolyn) and Luther M. Goode, III (Arsena); two daughters, Jacqueline F. Booker (Monroe) and Sharon R. Brunson-White (Ronnell) ; eight grandchildren, Cory B. Booker, Kennard M. Brunson, Jr. (Natasha), Melani R.

“ You don't know me but as one of Jehovah's Witnesses I would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 2yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again! Any Jehovah's Witnesses that you meet would love to show you in the Bible the truth about death! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ In our last meal together you spoke so lovingly about your son. My heart knew you were saying goodbye. Because of you, our Luther for the last thirty years comes home to rest across the foot of the bed. Take care of our kindest Stacy [she will always be the smile on my face]. And don't forget to set a candle out for Mommy as she once did for you. It's time to go plant your garden and be at peace.

*Love always,
Nan*
