

Ethel Hall

April 12, 1909 - November 3, 2006

ETHEL McCREE HALL, the eleventh of fourteen children of the late George and Katie McCree, was born on April 12, 1909 in Council, North Carolina. After ninety-seven years of a vibrant life, she slipped away during her sleep on Friday, November 3, 2006. "Gram," as she was affectionately called by her family, was educated in Council, North Carolina. She was married to the late John Hall, Sr. and from that union they enjoyed raising their two sons; the late John, Jr. and Allen, three daughters; the late Edna, Pearl and Beatrice. Gram loved exquisite desserts and was an avid baker of sumptuous cakes and pies. Two of her specialties were the three-layered coconut cake and delicious pecan pies. Ethel was also quite a dresser. All those who knew her marveled at her dapper sense of fashion and meticulous style. She was a skilled and keen seamstress. Ethel accepted Christ at an early age. After relocating to Wilmington, North Carolina, she continued her Christian experience by serving as the choir director and Sunday School teacher. Later Gram moved to Baltimore where she joined the Edmonson Heights S.D.A. church under the pastorate of Pastor Alfred Johnson. There, she enjoyed ministering as one of the Deaconess and a faithful Sabbath School member. Gram's day began routinely with the reading of scriptures. She was a very compassionate individual with a quiet demeanor, often seeking to make life just a little bit easier for her family and neighbors. It was not uncommon to see her reaching out to touch the lives of tenants in her apartment complex. Her service to God continued weekly as she led a large number of the tenants through prayer, bible study and worship. Gram's memory will be forever embedded in the hearts of many. She leaves to cherish her memory: two devoted daughters, Pearl Abrams and Beatrice Banks, one devoted son, Allen Hall; one loving sister, Annie Mae Dyson; thirty grandchildren, many great-grandchildren, great great-grandchildren and a host of extended family and friends.

“ *Hello Hall Family ! May you all have peace in knowing that others care. Losing a dear love one in deathis a tragedy. Ms. Hall did a lot of things during her life. Hepling people is a great gift. Jesus Christ loved to help people all the time. When his friend Lazarus died he felt sorry for the family so much that tears came.The time is coming when no more tears of sorry from death and sickness will be. That will be a great day. The bible help us to see that at Isa.33:24, no one will ever say they are sick. Death will be gone forever at Isa.25:8, Isa.66:13. Our heavenly knows how you all are feeling and set a time soon for better days for all of us. I hope these uplifting thoughts can be encouraging to the family. My sincere condolences. “ To the family, please accept my sincere condolences during this time of your loss. Please read and find comfort in John 5:28,29 and Rev. 21:3,4. God has promised to do away with death and the pain that it causes. May these scriptures bring you strength and encouragement during your time of sorrow.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
