“ To the family of Ms Ethel R Henson Cameron . I am sorry to read about the loss of your loved one. The pain is tremendous even with the passage of time. There are scriptures in the Bible to help provide relief of grief and distress. Please read Ps 65:2 that talks about “The Hearer” of prayers, people of all flesh will come.

“ Henson-Cameron family and friends, please accept my sincere condolences. It's the hardest thing is to lose someone you love. While time will make this hurt more bearable it will never take it away. We can find true hope and comfort from Gods word the bible. Jehovah our loving heavenly father has already made provisions for the hurt that death causes by means of the ransom sacrifice of his son Jesus Christ. (Job33:24) Soon Revelation 21:4-5 assures us that all things that cause us hurt or suffering will be done away with,including death. To find out more please visit www.jw.org or talk with Jehovah's Witnesses in your area. Please attend the local observance of the Memorial of Jesus death to gain an even greater appreciation and knowledge of what that ransom sacrifice really means for us

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. The Bible offers the wonderful hope of being reunited with dead loved ones in a new world with " no more death, suffering, crying, or pain."-Revelation 21:3,4 Contemporary English Version

It is possible because "There is going to be a resurrection."- Acts 24:15 New World Translation

May you receive much comfort and strength from this wonderful hope.

“ To the family and friends of Ms. Cameron, I offer my condolence. None of us is ever fully prepared when our loved one falls asleep in death. We can manage to gain the strength and comfort from God's words found in his scriptures and each other. One scripture that may bring you comfort is found at John 5:28,29a... "Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out..." Also know that the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing (1Corinthians 15:26).
