

Ethel Hunter

April 11, 1917 - November 10, 2010

ETHEL T. HUNTER, was born in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Mr.& Mrs. George Jackson. All of her sisters and brothers have preceded her in death. The family lived in East and West Baltimore. She was educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools. Ethel graduated from Coppin Teachers College, now known as Coppin State University and completed graduate studies at New York University.

Ethel met and married Williams Hunter in New York City where she resided for some years and started a family. As a result of this union, two daughters, Debra and Darlyne, were born.

Ethel taught classroom instruction on the Elementary level for 34 years and was blessed to have 40 years of retirement. Ethel was a dedicated and active member of St. James Episcopal Church for over 60 years. She was blessed to have received an achievement of 50 years of Holy Confirmation. Ethel was an active and dedicated member of the St. Monica's Guild. She encouraged and supported all young people in spiritual and social growth.

Throughout her life, Ethel was an active member of many volunteer and public service organizations including but not limited to N.A.A.C.P., Urban League Guild, Baltimore Chapter of the American Red Cross (for 20+years), Tots& Teens, Incorporated, The National Sorority of Phi Delta Kappa, Incorporated (Gamma Chapter), Reflections and Projections (a mentoring program), The Enthusiastic Investment Club, The Swavette's Club, The Association of Baltimore City School Retirees and National Association of Negro Business and Professional Women's Club.

In addition to her community involvement, she enjoyed domestic and foreign travel, cruising the oceans, summer family trips, reading the Baltimore Afro Newspaper and her favorite magazine-Oprah and playing her favorite card games.
