

Ethel M. Scriber

June 28, 1917 - January 6, 2008

Ethel Mildred Scriber, daughter of the late Robert and Ellanora Walker Royal, was born in Jacksonville, Florida on June 28, 1917. She departed this life on January 6, 2008. Ethel attended local schools and upon graduating from high school moved to Baltimore, Maryland to follow her dream of becoming a beautician. After completing cosmetology training, she worked for four decades as a beautician. Later she launched a career as a bookbinder for Enoch Pratt Free Library. She retired from Pratt in 1978 to care for her grandchildren. Ethel was devoted wife and mother. In 1938, soon after joining friends in Baltimore, she met her husband, the late Clarence Scriber. In October 1941, the couple married and together reared three daughters, Clarice, Beverly, and Anita. Ethel was a loving mother, a tireless worker and a steadfast friend, who maintained life-long friendships. People were drawn to her engaging personality, generous spirit and optimism, as well as to her crab cakes and brownies. She enjoyed cooking, crafts and word scrambles and doting on her grandchildren. For more than sixty years, she was a member of the L'Etoile Variety Club. Ethel was predeceased by her husband, Clarence. She leaves to mourn: her daughter, Clarice Phillips (Irving), Beverly Wright (Mathews) and Elizabeth Case (Raymund), all of Baltimore; grandchildren, Aisha Wright Villarreal of Atlanta, GA, Webster Phillips, III, Jason Wright, Ryan Case, Christian Case and Jeremy Case, all of Baltimore; nieces, Carleathia Royal-Nelson and Barbara Barber of Baltimore, Johnnie Mae Johnson, Claressa O'Neal and Michelle Sam of Jacksonville, FL; nephew, George Royal, Jr. of Forestville, MD; brother-in-law, Charlie Crawford of Jacksonville; and goddaughter, Jennifer Conover; as well as a host of other relatives and friends. A sister, Elizabeth Crawford, and brothers, Robert, George, Fred, John, Ernest and Frank preceded her in death.

Tribute Wall

“ Ethel M. Scriber

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of Mrs. Scriber. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares: "There is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort and strength every time you think about the wonderful resurrection hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Hill##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I wish to extend my sympathy to the family of Ethel. The death of a loved one is a very painful thing to deal with, and I wish you all much comfort and love from out heavenly father, Jehovah. One day he promises that he will swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces. Isaiah 25:8. Although it hurts, remember that death is only temporary, because God promises that the dead will be ressurected back to life. Acts 24:15. John 5:28,29. May the bible be a great source of comfort to you as you mourn the death of your loved one.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. At times like these it may seem that there is no source of comfort. No source of relief from your sorrow. I have been able to find comfort in God's Word, The Bible. I have found comfort from the wonderful hope expressed at Acts 24:15 and the promise made at John 5:28,29. May these serve as a source of comfort for you also.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM