

Ethel Marks

December 20, 1950 - June 8, 2005

Ethel Mae Marks was born December 20, 1950, in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Ethel M. and Woodson H. Marks. She passed away on June 8, 2005 after a lengthy illness. She was educated in Baltimore City Public Schools and graduated from Baltimore City Community College. Ethel attended different churches and read the Bible frequently. She was employed at the United States Post Office, Commercial Credit Corp, and Maryland State Government. Ethel was an entrepreneur like Lydia in the Bible (Acts 16: 14-15). She enjoyed reading and was knowledgeable on different subjects. She had a beautiful sense of humor and her youthfulness was often admired. She was married to the late Eric Barnes. She was preceded by her deceased daughter, Athenia M. McDonald. She loved her grandchildren dearly. She leaves to cherish her memory: one son, Wendell Marks; grandchildren, Endia, Javon, and Sharone; five sisters, Gloria, Connie, Betty, Frances and Pat; four brothers, Woodson, Charles, Ronald and Glenn; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, brothers-in-law, sisters-in-law, great nieces, great nephews, and other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. The Bible rightly calls death our enemy, that same verse assures us that death is going to be destroyed. What hope is there for our dead loved ones? Acts 9:36-42 tells us of a generous and skilled woman who died and was raised back to life right here on earth. That is preview of the future resurrection that will take place on a paradise earth. At that time there will be no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (Isaiah 33:24, Matthew 5:5 and Luke 23:43) May these loving promises from Almighty God give you much comfort, strength and hope in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends , I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 5:28,29 where Jesus says "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." It is my hope that you will be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##
