

Ethel Lean McCloud

December 15, 1934 - December 14, 2010

Death is not the ending, but the beginning of new life which God has prepared for us....At Bon Secours Hospital, our Beloved Mama began this life.

ETHEL LEAN McCLOUD, the only child of the late Malissa Dawson Johnson and Cecil Johnson was born December 15, 1934. After the early passing of her mother, she was raised in a Christian home by her grandparents Alonzo & Queenie Dawson. Growing up in North Carolina, Ethel had a close bond with her family- especially cousins William Dawson Jr., Queenie Curtis, and the late Helen Thompson.

“Mama”, as she was affectionately called, was educated in the North Carolina school systems. In 1948 she met Joseph Pugh. They relocated to Baltimore, Maryland from this union eight children were born. Two of their preceded her in death, Irvin & Eddie Pugh.

In 1967 Ethel married the late John Hazel McCloud. They had many years of marital bliss until his death in 1994.

Mama was employed at Maryland Cup Company, then later for the state of Maryland at the University Hospital where she retired after more than 20 years. Mama enjoyed many things; spending time with her family, cooking, fishing, dancing, and being a member Eastern Star, where she was elected to the rank of Worthy Matron. Mama was a loving mother, a wonderful grandma, and a great listener. Even if you didn't want advice, you got it anyway. Mama

She leaves to cherish her memories, 4 sons Odell, Johnnie, Mickeal, Wardell Pugh; 2 daughters Josephine Johnson, Jacqueline Burke; 1 son-in-law Johnnie L. Johnson; 4 daughter-in-laws Daphine, Rochelle, Daphine, Cheryl; 16 grandchildren Ricky, Joseph, Zina, Elveter, Johnnie, Kira, Johnnie, William, Daronne, Trimiare, Brittney, Nadazure, Chonda, Mickeal, Lenny, Larry; 26 great-grandchildren; 8 great-great-grandchildren; 2 aunts, Rosa Lee Dawson & Mabel Couser; 3 sister-in-laws Lillie Anderson, Pearlina Ferguson, Dorothy McCloud; extended family members; the Allens, Debrae, Phillips, Mary Ann Harris, Duron Perry and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, & friends.
