“ To the Children.
When you loose someone you love it seems that time stands still, what moves through is a silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, one more touch.
You may not understand why she left this world so soon or why she left before you were ready to say goodbye, but little by little you will begin to remember not just that she died but that she LIVED and her life gave you memories to beautiful to forget.
Hold on to memories of love shared, lean on your family and friends for comfort and support and always remember that you are loved.
Please accept our heartfelt sympathy on the passing of your mother.

“ Dear Sherman,
You and Ethel chose Neil and I to be your son and daughter, your love for us was very genuine. Ethel loved the Lord and it showed in every conversation and visit. I will miss sailing the high seas with her and our long talks. She was a trooper and is now healed and with her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. We will miss her very much..

Love,
Neil & Allison

“ To the Family,

No one can prepare you for a loss; it comes like a swift wind. But take comfort in knowing that she is now resting in the arms of our Lord. Please remember that when we lose a loved one here on Earth, we gain an angel in heaven that watches over us. May you take comfort in knowing that you have an angel to watch over you. My thoughts and prayers are with you and please accept my sincere condolences.

“ I thank the Lord for allowing me to meet Rev. Randolph when we both were studying at Richmond Virginia Seminary. While short in stature, she was a mighty woman of God!
