

Ethel S. J. Cohen

May 26, 1938 - August 25, 2003

Ethel Sara Jane Cohen peacefully departed this life on August 25, 2003. She was the daughter of the late Mildred S. Williams and Walter "Buttons" Cohen. Ethel was also the mother of the late Sharon A. Cohen. Ethel was born May 26, 1938 at Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland. She received her education at Central Consolidated High School in Harford County, Maryland. Since Ethel had a natural talent for cooking, Blue Bell's Seafood Restaurant employed her for many years. Ethel became a member of the Pillar of Truth of the Apostolic Faith in Baltimore, Maryland. Her appreciation of life through good times and bad was outwardly expressed whenever there was a social gathering and those who knew Ethel knew it was quite memorable and everyone loved her for it. After a home cooked meal by Ethel, you knew her greatest satisfaction was that you had a full stomach and a smile of thanks on your face. Ethel will forever be remembered by her loving family and friends. She leaves to mourn: her loving children, Morris D. Preston, Sheila Buchanan, Mildred Cohen and Gloria Lowery; her son-in-law, Philip Buchanan; her brother-in-law, William Epps and his family; her dearest friend, Andre Redd; one uncle, Charles Boone; two aunts, Virginia Echols and Bessie Harvey; devoted cousin, Lewis T. Gwynn; other cousins, fifteen grandchildren, twenty-one great-grandchildren, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
