“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ To the Felder, I offer my sincere condolences. Death is so unfair. It leaves a gaping wound in our hearts forever. May Jehovah God comfort you in your grief, as well as in the promise of the resurrection for those of our loved ones who have passed away. Rev 21:4 promises, "And he will wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more. One day no more tears and pain. Please be comforted.##imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##

“ Dear family of Ethel. I am very sorry to hear about your lost. Death is always such a sad thing for anyone to go through. The bible fortells of a time when death, sickness, and pain will be no more. These will be things of the past. 1Cor 15:25##imported-begin##A. Jones##imported-end##
