

Etta Marie Davis

September 26, 1915 - February 18, 2004

Etta Marie Blackwell Davis was born on September 26, 1915 in Meredithville, Virginia to the late Gertrude Taylor Blackwell and Frank Blackwell. Mrs. Davis moved to Maryland where she met and married her beloved husband of sixty-two years, Avorn Davis. She worked and retired after many years from the Social Security Administration and the Baltimore County Department of Education. She was educated in the Coatesville School System where she achieved many honors. She obtained a teaching degree from West Chester University and her Masters Degree from the University of Maryland. Mrs. Davis loved her church and served on several boards. She and Mr. Davis were avid bridge players traveling regionally and nationally to participate in tournaments. She leaves to mourn her passing: her beloved husband, Avorn; sisters, Edith Watkins of East Elmhurst, New York and Florence Oliphant of Coatesville, Pennsylvania; brother, Frank Blackwell Sr. of Coatesville, Pennsylvania; sisters-in-law, Mrs. Frank Blackwell and Mrs. Kenneth Davis; and many nephews and nieces.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the family, I like to offer my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort now and in the days to come, by keeping these words at Isaiah 66:13, in mind "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, So I myself shall keep comforting you people. The Bible is full of words of comfort. Please read John 5: 28,29. ##imported-begin## Janice Mitchell ##imported-end##
