“ To the family and friends, Im am so sorry for your loss and wanted to share a comforting scripture with you. I know that it is hard right now not to see your loved one but the Bible says at John 5:28, 29 that "all those in memorial tombs will come out". Please read your Bible and put trust in the true God to see this fulfilled.##imported-begin##D. Samuel##imported-end##

“ I offer my sympathy to the family and friends of Eubelia Hairston. It seems unfair that death has the power to take away someone we love. The Bible is comforting in this regard. It promises that our loved ones now dead will live again. You can read these words at John 11:20-27. May you continue to rely and find comfort in reading the Bible.##imported-begin##P Land##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my condolences to Ms. Hairston's family. The loss of a dearly loved one can seem untimely at any age and can be painful, that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But, please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to 1Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4. Also, the resurrection hope is confirmed at Daniel 12:2, there it states, "many asleep in the ground of dust will wake up." Yes, these are the promises of God, who cannot lie.-Titus 1:2. May you find comfort in your cherished memories and in God's Word of Truth, the Bible.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##
