

Eugene A McCallum

July 19, 1951 - September 3, 2006

EUGENE ARISE McCALLUM, SR., was born on July 19, 1951 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Jason and Pearline McCallum. Born into Christian hood within the Nazarene Baptist Church where his father was the Assistant Pastor, Eugene came from a generation whose tradition it was to worship and work in the name of the Lord. He received his formal education through the Baltimore City Public School System. In 1969, he graduated from Samuel Gumphry's High school where he excelled academically. In 1974, Eugene was joined in holy matrimony to Roslyn Ann Johnson and from this union they were blessed with two children. Because Eugene never let any grass grow under his feet, his employment career was exciting and fulfilling. He retired from H.G. Roebuck & Son after more than twenty years of service. He dabbled in all sorts of home repairs, including plumbing and electrical work. He could lay down floors, put up walls and could even build a house if you stayed out of his way. Even after her retired, he continued to work hard for friends and family, providing his carpentry expertise. In 1984, Eugene met Deborah Ann Johnson who shared his passion for music, watching a good western movie, and most importantly the company of friends. Whether it was a trip to Atlantic City of playing spades at the dining room table, Eugene was always ready to share in a good time. It was not uncommon to see him sitting outside on the steps, mingling with his closest friends. Family would visit daily just to "shoot the breeze" with him. This was the normal life for the "McCallum Family", always watching out for loved ones. He was father figure to the neighborhood children and was known for fixing their bikes. Everybody knew "Gene". As a matter of fact, he had a number of nicknames. When you heard or saw the red Camaro, you knew it was "Speedy" coming. I think he believed that in order for the car to move at all that he had to push the peddle through the floor. He was also known as "Hootie" to family and friends, a name that was given to him by his Aunt Janine. Eugene was a people magnet. Simultaneously fun-loving and hard working, and a happy-go-lucky prankster and joke teller, he spead sunshine wherever he went. He was a very sharp dresser and would not go anywhere without looking his best. He cherished his family and spoiled his children immensely. He held a special affection for his many buddies with whom he told jokes, played spades and worked with for over twenty-five years.

“ Please accept my condolences. May you find comfort in the words of Jesus at John 11:38-44, about the power of the resurrection. We also have the promise that God will remove our enemy death at 1 Cor 15:26. May this give you the strength and encouragement you need at this time.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
