

Eugene Anthony Marks

January 16, 1966 - January 18, 2008

Eugene Anthony Marks, the son of the late Eugene Felder and the late Delilah Marks, was born on January 16, 1966 in Baltimore, Maryland. He was the eldest of three brothers and one sister. Gene or Nose as he was sometimes referred to by family and friends, was educated in the public school system located in Baltimore, Maryland, as youth along with his family. Growing up in East Baltimore, Gene had many friends who he loved to spend time with him. Becoming sickly at an early age he spent the better part of his life battling epilepsy. He touched many lives throughout the course of his life. Gene was a faithful and devoted friend to many and a confidant to all. For many years, he worked diligently with the various groups. Within the community doing small and odd jobs for all who was in need. Many to be a strong and reliable protection that feared no one viewed him. Gene was a self-taught carpenter who loved to fix things for many people. He also was a great inspiration to all children he was in contact with. Throughout the years, he fixed many, many items and helped make people feel safe in their homes for not only his immediate family, but his extended family, friends and neighbors. He continued his passion of carpentry until his illness prevented it. Besides doing carpentry, he enjoyed watching and playing sports, taking trips, telling jokes, singing, cooking and sharing his thoughts of wisdom with his family and friends. Gene had a calm and soft-spoken manner about his self; however, he always got his point across and stood fast to his words. He was preceded in death by the love of his life his grandmother, Alice Marks. The queen of his sole his mother, Delilah Marks-Queen, his father, Eugene Felder and his little brother whom he was very close to, Raymond Marks, aunt Cynthia Little, and uncles, Larry and Melvin Marks. He leaved to cherish his memory his sister, Veronica Hanley (Michael Hanley), brothers, Terry Marks and Troy Fisher, Jr. (Omega Fisher). His uncle, James Marks, two aunts Sharon Marks and Bertha Green. He also leaves to cherish this memory a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, family and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Eugene Anthony Marks

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ I wish to offer my heartfelt condolences at this most difficult time. The death of a loved one is so very hard to deal with, but family know that the God of all comfort will soon bring an end to sickness and death in the very near future. The bible tells us at Isaiah 25,8 that soon Jehovah is going to swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces. Families worldwide are losing their loved to the enemy death, but that is soon going to change according to bible prophecy. This was never God's purpose for us to get sick and die, and he will definitely fulfill his word to raise the dead back to life. John 5:28,29 tells us: "Donot marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out; those who did good things to a ressurection of life." I pray that you recieve the strength that you need to carry on, and may Jehovah God comfort you with his love.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept our sincere condolences for the loss of Mr. Marks. Our loving and happy God(1 John 4:8, 1 Timothy 1:11)never intended for us to lose our loved ones in death. In fact the Bible informs us that he will destroy our enemy death.(1Corinthians 15:26) Even more thrilling is the hope of our dead loved ones being resurrected to life with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (Acts 24:15 and Revelation 21:3,4) As you read these scriptures from your copy of the Bible and think deeply on them may you receive much comfort and strength. Also,may you draw closer to almighty God Jehovah and his loving son Jesus Christ.##imported-begin##Hill##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM