

Eugene E. Williams

September 14, 1921 - December 20, 2002

Eugene E. Williams, son of Eugene and Bessie Baxter Williams, was born on September 14, 1921 in Gaston, North Carolina. He departed this life on December 20, 2002 after a lengthy illness. He received his education in the public schools of Gaston. At the age of twenty-one he entered the United States Army and remained until January 10, 1946. After being honorably discharged he migrated to Baltimore, Maryland where he worked various jobs until gaining employment at Bethlehem Steel in 1953 and retired in 1986. He joined Saint Paul Peace and Harmony Freewill Baptist Church in 1958 and maintained membership up until his death. He married the late Pauline Bell on October 1, 1956 and became stepfather to Leonard Bryant and James Alderman. Eugene, Roy as he was commonly called, made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He was always a true friend and a devoted family man. He leaves to mourn; his brother Charles Williams and his wife Mildred Williams, sister-in-law, Lucy Bell; step-son, James Alderman and his wife L. Renee Alderman; and a special daughter, Doris Keaton; six nieces, three nephews, twelve grandchildren, sixteen great-grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.
